Coach Jamie Whyte

Jamie Whyte, a former British Ice Dance Champion, international and Junior World competitor began skating at the age of 3. When he was 19 he came to the US to further his skating career. In 2008 he turned professional and began coaching full-time. Jamie now coaches in Chicago, specializing in Ice Dance. Coach Whyte is also a National Ice Dance Specialist and International Technical Specialist in Ice Dance. He works with all levels from developing beginning skaters to technical coaching for the highest level dance teams; including Olympic and World Champion Ice Dance teams, Meryl Davis & Charlie White, and Tessa Virtue & Scott Moir.

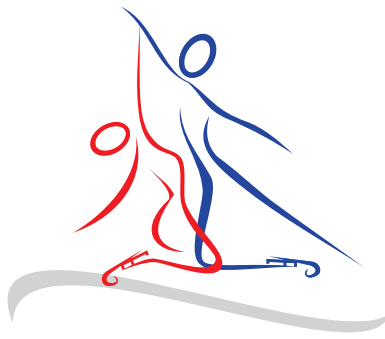

Private lessons will also be available with

Registrants will receive an email to schedule private lessons.
First come, first serve meaning skaters will be scheduled for private lessons as soon as their registration is complete and they confirm lesson time by response email.

Space is limited. Please register early to secure private lesson time.

(Private lesson fees not included in the seminar fee.)

Coach Robert Baker

Robert Baker has competed on a Regional and Sectional level in Men's Freestyle, Ice Dancing, and Pair's Free Skating. Robert was an alternate twice for Nationals in both Pair's and Men's Freestyle Skating. Robert and his dance partner were Regional and Sectional Dance Champions in Intermediate and Novice Dance. Robert is a Double Gold Medalist in Men's Freestyle, and in Men's Field Moves. Robert is certified by the Professional Skating Association, and a member of the USFSA.

Coach Katherine De Angelis

Katherine De Angelis has been skating since the age of 4 and has done a variety of competitions in her skating career including Regionals, Sectionals, Junior Nationals, Lake Placid Ice Dance, State Games of America and National Showcase. She is a gold medalist in Solo Ice Dance, Solo Free Dance, and Moves in the Field. She is serving as the Creative Director for Oklahoma City Theatre on Ice and coaching in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. She specializes in Ice Dance, Field Moves, Artistic Skating, Artistry in Motion, Edges, Skating Skills, and Choreography. She is a member of the Professional Skaters Association and recently attended the NARCE conference.
